

www.mlkday.gov

www.serve.nebraska.gov

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day of Service January 18, 2010

ServeNebraska encourages all in our state to get involved

Learn about what is going on throughout our country and how you can join in at:

www.mlkday.gov

In Nebraska...

Youth Rally & March – Lincoln

Organized by a diverse group of area youth and supported by Lincoln Public Schools and other community stakeholders the celebration is held in conjunction with the national recognition of the late Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday. The rally's contains content for those 4-90 years of age and seeks to promote the life and Dream of the late Rev. Dr. King, Jr. through positive youth action in the community. LEARN MORE

YouthBuild Omaha AmeriCorps – Goodwill Industries

Participants will depict the Montgomery Bus Boycott. The depiction will involve a skit prior to Rosa Parks' refusal to give up her seat along with the plans that lead to the boycott. All key persons will be identified along with their role in the community and the boycott. In addition, previous African American figures that confronted similar occurrences will be depicted references as will their efforts that helped lead to the boycott. In addition to the skit, photos and printed information will be displayed on a poster board in the YouthBuild building.

Man is man because he is free to operate within the framework of his destiny. He is free to deliberate, to make decisions, and to choose between alternatives. He is distinguished from animals by his freedom to do evil or to do good and to walk the high road of beauty or tread the low road of ugly degeneracy.

- Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. 1959